

Studio

hille

The Studio beam seating by Hille is constructed from a powder coated mid steel frame and a clear lacquered, beech ply, one piece shell which can be finished to suit individual requirements. Equally it can be upholstered in various colours and combinations. Arms are optional and the steel beam can be coated in a number of Hille colours.